The present case perhaps can be construed, as the ability of J Jnanatharao now in D class has already been confirmed by the DS, as a reason for giving him the max pay of the pay admissible on the minimum of J Jnanatharao now under the first instance appointed in D class in each year his superior qualifications in 50 and over by the promotion of Justice D CV he has been confirmed in class D. Jagannatha Rao was already been appointed on the maximum pay of Rs 50 in class D I (30-4½-60) against a vacancy in class C IV (50-10½-100) He will not be thrown out of employment by the promotion of Thummiah from class D I to C IV as presumed by the D.G. Rly.

9 The D G's present recommendation is not perhaps strictly necessary Jagannatha Rao was appointed permanently by G O dt 23-4-12, but the appointment was treated as an addl one, as there was no vacancy just then in class D, when however a vacancy occurred later on in class D, naturally Jagannatha Rao's appointment should be taken as against it
